Selected Sample of Qualitative Evaluations from this Course:

“The course was fun, [and] my instructor made all of the information clear and understandable. His teaching strategies, such as his use of examples, really helped the slightly difficult information ‘click’ in my brain.”

“I like that the instructor is very helpful and he takes the time out to help you understand something if you don’t quite get it. Also for the morning class, he’s quite energetic and a bit humorous at times. I like the corresponding videos we watch after we were taught something; it helped me get a better understanding.”

“He is very clear when presenting material and gives good examples. Makes it relatable; one of the best teachers I’ve had at FSU.”

“Jesse was personable, approachable, and willing to help students extra if needed. He took time to go over [material] if it was evident people didn’t understand, rather than just ignoring it.”

“This course really stimulated my interest in economics. I loved the way Mr. Wright taught and all the opportunities he gave to be successful in class. He really was happy to help anyone who needed it and you could tell he had the subject mastered. Great professor overall: A+ rating!”

“The lectures were not boring and the instructor gave visual examples of how things in the class related to us.”

“Jesse Wright gives a lot of detail on the lessons and helpful in-class activities to ensure that we know the material.”

“Professor Wright presented all the material very explicitly and made it easy to understand. He also provided numerous examples for the information. He also is very willing to help anyone when needed to be sure the class [material] is being understood.”

“Very structured and easy to follow along, even if you have no background in economics, videos were also great.”

“The instructor was very clear about what to expect, and taught the course in a manner where you felt comfortable to ask a question.”

“The course was easy to follow and the concepts weren’t too difficult to understand. The instructor was eloquent and respectful. Very chill dude.”

“I liked when he gave real world examples...”

“I loved the teaching style. The professor always kept me interested.”

“The teacher deserves a raise, he’s great!”
